

A Witches Tale (Book One)

For a hundred years no one talked about it all the people, mainly women, who had mysteriously disappeared in this picture perfect town nestled in between lush rolling hills and a lake that stretched out like the sea itself. No one wanted to remember that at one time, the ignorance of not knowing was what fueled the mob, and a mob it was, when provoked by bible thumpers and boredom. Meet Alexi, not your typical teenage girl, as she invites you into her world in the small town of Ravenswood. Alexi has suffered a loss, but despite her hidden sadness, she manages to find a shining light in the darkness as she goes on an adventure of a lifetime. Alexi is soon to discover her witchy past, and along with her best friend Logan, and the mysterious new boy who moves to town, Kyle Huntington, things are set into motion. Soon all of Ravenswoods secrets will be uncovered. Stuff & Things and What Boredom Brings is book one in A Witches Tale series by paranormal author Rue Volley. It is sure to delight with its humor and unexpected twists and turns. This story embraces witchcraft and other paranormal whatnots.
