

An Anthology of Mother Verse: With an Introduction (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from An Anthology of Mother Verse: With an Introduction
Hymn For The Mother
My child is lying on my knees;
The signs of heaven she reads;
My face is all the heaven she sees,
Is all the heaven she needs.
And she is well, yea, bathed in bliss,
If heaven is in my face, -
Behind it is all tenderness
And truthfulness and grace.
I mean her well so earnestly,
Unchanged in changing mood;
My life would go without a sigh
To bring her something good.
I also am a child, and I
Am ignorant and weak;
I gaze upon the starry sky,
And then I must not speak;
For all behind the starry sky,
Behind the world so broad,
Behind mens hearts and souls doth lie
The Infinite of God.
Ay, true to her, though troubled sore,
I cannot choose but be:
Thou who art peace forevermore
Art very true to me.
