

Faust, Part One

Randall Jarrells translation of Goethes classic, illustrated with extraordinary new drawings by Peter Sis. Randall Jarrells translation of Faust is one of his most important achievements. In 1957 he inscribed Goethes motto on the first page of his notebook: Ohne Hast aber ohne Rast (Without haste but without rest), and from then until his death in 1965 he worked on the masterpiece of his own favorite daemon, dear good great Goethe. His intent was to make the German poetry free, unrhymed poetry in English. He all but finished the job before he died, and the few lines that remained untouched--Gretchens Spinning Song--were rendered into English by Robert Lowell. This elegant new edition features numerous beautiful line drawings by the renowned Czech artist, Peter Sis, author of the award-winning books The Starry Messenger and Tibet: Through the Red Box.
