

The Breakers Promise (YA Urban Fantasy) (Fixed Points Book 2)

NEWLY EDITED AND UPDATED! The world is ending, and it's her fault. Cresta Karr is the Bloodmoon, the prophesized Breaker whose going to one day bring about the end of the world not that anyone knows that. She and her boyfriend Owen, the Breaker prophesized whos predestined to kill her, have done a pretty good job of hiding that fact from the Council of Masons and the world as a whole. But when a series of events bring both of them into the Hourglass, the Breaker seat of power, their lies (and their lives) begin to unravel. How long can they keep Cresta's real identity a secret? And what will the Council do when it finds out the truth? And will Cresta and Owens relationship survive when her Perfect is revealed to be someone very different than the boy she loves? The past will yield its secret, the future will come calling, and Fates noose will grow ever tighter in the second part of the epic four part Fixed Points series! Dont miss it.
