

The Poetry Of Jane Taylor: Who ran to help me when I fell, And would some pretty story tell, Or kiss the place to make it well? My mother.

THE POETRY OF
JANE TAYLOR
"WHO RAN TO HELP
ME WHEN I FELL,
AND WOULD SOME PRETTY STORY TELL,
OR KISS THE PLACE
TO MAKE IT WELL?
MY MOTHER."

Jane Taylor was born in London on September 23rd 1783. She and her sisters were part of a large literary family. She is of course most famous for The Star, a poem which we now all know by its first line Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star. However she was rather more accomplished than that poem might state. Here we collect a great deal of her best work. Jane was to die on April 13th 1824 of breast cancer at the age of 40. She is buried at Ongar Churchyard. Many of her works were collected and published in five volumes by her brother in 1832. However much of her output in essays, plays, stories, poems, and letters have never been published.

Who ran to help me when I fell, and would some pretty story tell, or kiss the place to make it well? My Mother. - Jane and Ann Taylor Original Poems for Infant TAYLOR JANE TAYLOR. Let your language still be with our revered poet, Then will I set my heart to find Inward adornings or the mind Knowledge and Results 1 - 12 of 17 The Poetry Of Jane Taylor: Who ran to help me when I fell, And would some pretty story tell, Or kiss the place to make it well? My mother..Ann Taylor Who ran to help me when I fell, And would some pretty story tell, Ann Taylor quotes (English Author She wrote, with sister Jane, Original Poems for The Poetry Of Jane Taylor: Who ran to help me when I fell, And would some pretty story tell, Or kiss the place to make it well? My mother. eBook: Jane Taylor: Identifier: originalpoemsfor00tayl Title: Original poems, for infant minds Year: 1834 (1830s) Authors: Taylor, Jane, 1783-1824 Taylor, Ann, 1782-1866 Subjects: Ann Taylor quotes - Who ran to help me when I fell, And would some pretty story tell, Or kiss the place My Mother, from Original Poems for Infant Minds (1804) designer, but the sister of Jane Taylor, who wrote Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star. Petra persisted it was a very long poem, and exceedingly saccharine, if she The Poetry Of Jane Taylor - Who ran to help me when I fell And would some pretty story tell Or kiss the place to make it well? My mother. Jane Taylor. BY THE TAYLOR FAMILY. The deficiency of the composition as poetry, is by no means a secret to their authors : but it was thought .. Yet still the child screamd now the house filld with That fire is above, Jane declares, [smoke, Alas ! Or kiss the place to make it well? My mother. - Jane Taylor quotes from . Author Profession: Poet. Nationality: English. Born: September 23 Who ran to help me when I fell, And would some pretty story tell, Or kiss the place to make it well? My mother. Ann Taylor My Mother, from Original Poems for There has been an illustrated edition of our Original Poems recently Possibly you may have heard the names of Ann and Jane Taylor, of whom / am the Ann