

What Shall I Do Today?

This is the combined volume of the What Shall I Do Today? series, and is full of ideas for young children to paint, draw and make craft objects. The simple stages in this book encourage young children to experiment in drawing, painting and handicrafts. The topics covered are varied enough to satisfy a wide range of interests and the finished projects should instil confidence in the youngest budding artist. Simple step-by-step picture instructions with minimal text show exactly how each project is created. Colour photographs show the finished result. Other titles in the What Shall I Do Today? series include What Shall I Make?, What Shall I Paint? and What Shall I Draw?.

While the projects in the book are cute and enticing to children, I was angry to discover most of the projects and photographs are the same as in the book.
